

IC package naming conventions

Basics

- DIP: A through-hole package with two parallel rows of pins.
- SOP: A surface-mount package, smaller than DIP, with pins on two sides
- SSOP: A shrunk version of SOP with tighter pin spacing.
- TSSOP: An even thinner and smaller variant of SSOP.